

Hoekom is ek hier?

	God is baie lief vir ons, daarom het Hy ons geskape– om in 'n verhouding met Hom te leef; van nou af tot in ewigheid! Sy liefde vir ons is groter en dieper as wat ons kan begryp, en die paradys was werklik wonderlik! Die volmaakte prag van die natuur in die Here se teenwoordigheid waar Hy met groot liefde na al die behoeftes van die mens omgesien het....
	Ongelukkig is hierdie mooi verhouding gebreek a.g.v. ons voorouers, Adam en Eva, se sonde en selfsug. Ons het hierdie gebrokenheid van hulle geërf. Ons eie belange kry meer aandag as God, en ons kan self ook nie die Tien Gebooie onderhou nie. Ons eie liefdeloosheid bevestig dat ons skuldig bly. Een leuen, een kwaai gebaar, een sonde is een te veel!
	God is so lief vir ons dat Hy sy Seun, Jesus, na die wereld toe gestuur het om te kom regmaak wat ons verbrou het. Jesus is so lief vir ons dat Hy gewillig sy wonderlike koninkryk verlaat het en na ons toe gekom het as mens, om hier gespot, gemartel en selfs gekruisig te word; om vir ons sondes te betaal. Slegs deur Jesus kan ons nou weer in 'n verhouding met die Vader kom – nou al, wat oorloop in ewige heerlikheid!
	Hy nooi elkeen van ons na Sy hemelse koninkryk! Die vraag is nou: Gaan ek Sy finale genade-aanbod aanvaar en my redding deur Jesus Christus aanneem? Sal ons na Hom toe kom en Hom in ons lewens in nooi? Sal ek 'n lewende lid van Sy bruid, die ware kerk word? Of gaan ons hierdie finale geleentheid weer deur ons vingers laat glip...? Waarlik, die belangrikste besluit van ons lewe!

Die Bybel bevat 66 boeke geskryf deur 40 verskillende skrywers oor 'n tydperk van 1600 jaar! Die oorspronklike geskrifte word gebruik met elke vertaling en dit bly dus getrou. Tekens van baie gebeure daarin beskryf is nog steeds te vind. Hedendaagse gebeure was daarin voorspel wat bewys dat dit deur God ge-inspireer is. Dit is sinvol en bevestig alle aspekte van ons lewens. Voorstel: begin lees vanaf Johannes tot Openbaring, dan van Genesis af. Why am I here?

	God loves us very much. That is why He created us, in a perfect paradise with everything we needed. He tended to man's every need. His love for us is greater than we can ever imagine, and He wants to be in an everlasting relationship with you and I. Yes, He wants us to be with Him in His magnificent, perfect, everlasting kingdom!
	Unfortunately, this beautiful relationship was broken because Adam and Eve rejected God and obeyed Satan. We inherit this weakness from them and none of us can keep the Ten Commandments either. We are therefore personally guilty. We cannot remedy this by trying to be "good". One lie, one angry gesture, one sin is one too many.
	God loves us so much that He sent His Son Jesus to us. He loves us so much that He willingly left His magnificent Kingdom and came to us to be mocked, tortured and even to be crucified. He sacrificed Himself perfectly and paid the full price of restoring our relationship with God the Father! Through Jesus we can start a new relationship with our Father, which overflows into His wonderful, eternal Kingdom!
	Question is: will I accept this final offer, and mend my relationship with God? Will I go to Him and invite Him into my life? Will I become an active member of His bride, the church? Or will I allow this wonderful opportunity to slip through my fingers once again? He wants you to be with Him, but only if you want to! Truly, the most important decision of our lives!

The Bible can be proven true in a court of law. It is a collection of 66 books written by 40 authors over a period of 1600 years. Many cross-references make it a cohesive book which contains everything we need to know to be saved. Evidence of many events described are still in existence today, and it fits every aspect of our lives exactly. Suggestion: Start reading from John to Revelations, then from Genesis onwards.
